HALE BROS. & CO.

NEARLY DONE!

The improvements and changes we have been making in our house are now nearly completed, and a day or two more for finishing and painting and we will have heard the last of the carpenter's hammer and saw, while the painter's brush will have put on the last touches. We think our many patrons will appreciate the much needed room we have lately added. We believe we are safe in saying that we can now supply your wants more readily and easily than ever before. We know that you will find much more comfort in trading at our counters than since we have opened in this city, for in making our improvements we have aimed to so arrange our house as to be the most convenient for the public. We extend to all a welcome invitation to call and while away an afternoon in making an inspection of our house and the various lines we carry constantly in stock. We shall in the future, as we have in the past, do all in our power to merit your patronage. We shall keep the best goods in the market, and will at all times guarantee our prices for the same quality of goods to be as low, and in most cases lower than those of any house on this Coast. Our business has grown rapidly since our advent in this city some four years ago, and if strict attention to business, combined with our facilities for purchasing goods—which are second to none on this coast—will accomplish anything, we propose to still further increase our trade. We are thankful to the people for their patronage, and we pledge ourselves that in all cases we will keep the prices of DRY GOODS, FANCY GOODS, CLOTHING, FURNISHING GOODS, AND BOOTS AND SHOES as low as is consistent with good, sound business principles.

Orders from the Country Receive Prompt and Careful Attention.

The Greely Survivors — Interesting Details of the Expedition for Their Relief.

NEW YORK, July 27th.—The following details, from the log of the steamship Lochgarry, of the Greely relief expedition, are provided by Ensign W. R. Chambers, who was in command of the vessel during its cruise to the Polar regions: On our first day out from St. Johns a heavy fog set in, and we encountered a large iceberg. In steering out of its way we lost sight of the Thetis, and could only resume our position by the sound of her whistle. May 18th, when we were off Cape Farewell, we met the first great quantity of ice, and were obliged to go ahead slowly. May 22d we sighted Disco, but had much difficulty in finding the harbor. The island was covered with ice and snow, and the landmarks were invisible. We left Godhaven May 29th, at 10 A. M., and steamed through ice along the coast to the point about ten miles below Hare Island. Here we found the ice so thick that we were compelled to lay to. Lieutenant Schley signaled for me to go back to Godhaven and wait for a favorable opportunity, with an east wind, to proceed to Upernavik. We left Godhaven the second time May 27th, and encountered more ice, through which we pushed our way, and found the Thetis lying to at Hare Island, having been unable to beat a passage through. The next morning the whalers Arctic and Wolf joined us, and one started ahead. The ice was heavy and very hummocky, and we experienced great difficulty in making progress. We several times narrowly escaped a collision with the Wolf. We finally succeeded in getting ahead, and the Wolf followed in the opening we made. The Thetis was now out of sight, and we set our course for Oomenack Fiord. Here we sighted the Thetis, ten miles ahead. We overhauled the Thetis May 28th. Captain Schley hailed us and said: "Go to Upernavik, calling at Proven. If you meet the Bear, coal her with dispatch." During the fog which came on we got into a false lead, and while returning to open water to try another, met the Thetis, and proceeded together, in the midst of a blinding snow-storm, which lasted all night, to Upernavik. On our arrival there, May 29th, we found the Bear, and coaled her. The vessels remained in the vicinity for nearly a week, when the Thetis and Bear proceeded northward, while we waited for the Alert, which arrived June 14th. The Governor of Upernavik told us there was no hope of getting through Melville Bay, as the season was unusually close. We left with the Alert June 21st, and reached Berry Island June 24th. We went ahead, pushing through the ice all the way, and June 25th reached Horsehead. Here the Alert got nipped in the ice, and in trying to get her out we lost so much time that the neck had become impenetrable. We lay jammed in the ice off Duck Island till June 29th. We worked all night on the 28th, blasting and sawing the ice, and finally got away into the open water. June 30th we were off Wilcox Head, where we had more hard pushing to get to open water beyond Devil's Thumb. While busy here, we sighted the Thetis and Bear coming toward us, and knew at once from their signaling that the Greely explorers had been traced, and that the survivors, if any, were on board. We returned to the open water, when a thick fog set in, and it was some time before I could go on board the Thetis and learn the news of the rescue. We then pushed south with all haste possible, and arrived in Upernavik July 2d. Captain Schley then dispatched the Alert and Lochgarry to Godhaven, while the Thetis and Bear put into Upernavik, the former to shift her broken rudder, and the latter to get coal. At Godhaven the latter's machinery was repaired, and we buried there one of the Esquimaux of Lieutenant Greely's party. We left Godhaven with the Alert in tow. Off the coast of Newfoundland we encountered a gale, and the steel barrier parted three times. The Alert was finally cast adrift July 15th. We dropped anchor at St. Johns at 9 A. M. on July 17th.

EXPENSES OF THE EXPEDITION.

WASHINGTON, July 27th.—There may be something of a row in Congress at the next session, when the expenses of the Greely relief party are presented by the Secretary of the Navy, and ordered to be paid. A gentleman who was detailed by the Secretary of the Navy to assist Commander Schley in the outfitting of the expedition says that the supplies put aboard the Bear, Thetis and Alert cost about half a million of dollars. While these supplies are brought back almost intact, it is doubtful if they were sold by auction that they would realize one cent on the dollar. This gentleman estimates that the cost of the improvements at the New York Navy Yard on the Bear was $100,000, and on the Thetis an equal amount; that the cost of repairs on the Alert, to fit her for an expedition to the Polar Seas was $50,000, and that the expenses of the Lochgarry were about $7,150 per month. The law provides that the Bear and Thetis shall be sold immediately, and there is no question, in this gentleman's judgment, but that both vessels will go for an infinitely smaller sum than was originally paid for them. The Lochgarry was loaded with Cardiff coal on the other side, and supplied with enough to last her and the other vessels in the relief fleet for two years. Every possible article that could have contributed to the relief of Greely's party was put aboard the steamers of the expedition, and many articles not regarded as essential to the success of the expedition were purchased and stored in the capacious holds of the Bear and Thetis. The survivors of the Greely party were brought from Cape Sabine to the Thetis and Bear in a steam launch. This launch was built by Herrishoff, with a shaft rigged upon one side of an ordinary whale boat, in such a manner that the propeller could instantly be lifted from the water in case of an emergency, without interfering with the ordinary management of such a boat. Naval officers here speak loudly in praise of the disinterested manner in which Commander Schley reported the rescue of the survivors of the Greely party.

PLAN FOR THE RECEPTION OF THE HEROES.

PORTSMOUTH (N. H.), July 27th.—The following plan of the ceremonies upon the return of the Greely relief expedition has been determined upon: Upon the arrival of the vessels on the morning of Saturday, August 2d, a naval reception will take place in the outer harbor, in which the ships of war lying here will participate, including the training squadron and practice ships from Annapolis and the North Atlantic squadron. Monday, August 4th, a reception will be given on shore to the officers and men of the relief expedition by the city of Portsmouth and State authorities of New Hampshire. The officers and men of all the naval vessels will take part in the parade in the afternoon or evening. A public meeting will be held, and addresses of welcome delivered. No special invitations to the ceremonies will be sent outside the State, but all who desire to come will be made welcome. Lieutenant Greely having, by the advice of his surgeon, declined any public reception on account of his physical weakness, will be taken to Newburyport at such time and in such way as he may prefer, or will be retained on board the vessel and landed at Governor's Island, New York, if so directed by Secretary Lincoln; in which case the relief ships will leave Portsmouth Monday night for New York, where they may be expected to arrive on the morning of August 7th.

Salvation Army Mobbed.

ALBANY (N. Y.), July 27th.—Twelve comrades and several converts of the Salvation Army opened a regular campaign here to-day. They held four meetings, all attended by immense crowds. At the second morning meeting the temporary seats in the barracks were smashed, and the Army adjourned to the Baptist Church. In the afternoon it was attended by a mob that interrupted proceedings by most disgraceful conduct. In the evening policemen maintained comparative quiet.

The "Oklahama Boomers" in Trouble Again.

CALDWELL (Ks.), July 27th.—C. Rogers, of Muskogee, Indian Territory, representing the Interior Department, has arrived here. He formally notified Captain Payne and his followers last Friday that they must quit Indian Territory immediately. They refused to go, and General Hatch was called upon to remove them, which he will do Monday. He will burn or otherwise destroy all the improvements made on the Cherokee lands by the "Boomers," and will arrest all the old offenders and turn them over to the United States Marshal, to be taken to Fort Smith, Ark., for trial. The new offenders will be taken to Kansas and turned loose.

Destructive Cyclone.

KANSAS CITY (Mo.), July 27th.—A Times' Dodge City (Kansas) special says: A cyclone at 10 o'clock last night visited Cimarron station, eighteen miles west of here, demolishing about a dozen houses. The house of Al. Barton was swept completely away. Mrs. Barton and child were seriously hurt, and several other persons received painful injuries. The wind reached a velocity of 87 miles an hour.

A Lady Fatally Shot.

YORK (Pa.), July 27th.—Mrs. Adam Miller was shot fatally last night, while sitting at a window at her father's residence, holding her sick infant. The shooting is supposed to have been done by Pius Miller, a brother of her husband. Her husband was in the room at the time. Pius Miller has always been considered a monomaniac on the subject of witchcraft, and on several occasions threatened his sister-in-law's life for having "bewitched" him.

Imprisoned Americans Released.

WASHINGTON, July 27th.—The Secretary of State has been notified by the American Consul at the City of Mexico that William Harwood and Edmund Velach, the two American citizens who had been arrested and imprisoned there on the charge of defamation of the President, have been released. The release was effected through the intervention of the American Minister.

Will Return to Her Children.

WASHINGTON, July 27th.—Mrs. Fox, daughter of Mrs. Wm. Stuart, who left here in the early spring for California, where she went to procure a legal separation from her husband, will immediately, upon securing a divorce, return to her mother's home in this city, where her four young children have been during her absence.

Mob Dispersed.

MINNEAPOLIS (Minn.), July 27th.—The mob which surrounded the jail for the purpose of lynching the murderer of a favorite police officer dispersed about 4 this morning, and no further trouble is anticipated.

Reported Insane.

NEW YORK, July 27th.—Colonel Charles B. Morton, Assistant Postmaster of Brooklyn, missing for some time, is now reported insane, and is in charge of friends.

FOREIGN.

The Cholera Situation.

MARSEILLES, July 27th.—The Catholics of the city have again petitioned the Mayor to authorize a procession and public prayers for the abatement of the cholera, but the request has been refused. Only five of the twenty-seven members of the Municipal Council remain in the city.

MARSEILLES, July 27th—9 P. M.—Thirty-six deaths have occurred here from cholera during the past 24 hours.

TOULON, July 27th—6 P. M.—Eleven deaths from cholera are reported here for the past 24 hours.

PARIS, July 27th.—Twelve deaths from cholera occurred at Arles to-day, and six at Aix. A panic prevails at the latter place.

PARIS, July 27th.—The Archbishop of Paris has ordered the priests to offer prayers for and solicit alms on behalf of the cholera victims. The favorable weather at Toulon has caused a marked amelioration of the epidemic. At Marseilles the police is obliged to use force when disinfecting the houses where deaths occurred. The priests and Sisters of Charity have been indefatigible, often doing the work of the municipal authorities in disinfecting houses. The Duc de Chartres has had an attack of fever in consequence of fatigue and anxiety resulting from his visit to Toulon and Marseilles.

BERLIN, July 27th.—A mass meeting was held here to protest against the establishment of cholera hospitals in the Loubit quarter; demanding a better water supply, and the completion of the sewerage work. The Director of the Hospital made an address, in which he declared that the cholera was far less dangerous than many other scourges, such as typhoid fever and kindred ills. He instanced the fact that in 1874, without it being fairly known, Asiatic cholera was created at the Moabite Hospital, and an epidemic occurred among a number of boatmen while on a debauch, and two patients brought in died of the attack, and the disease was successfully localized. The disclosure from an official inspector of hospitals excites no little sensation.

The Siberian Pest.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 27th.—The Siberian pest has appeared at Gatschina. A committee has been formed, with Prince Schapoffsky at its head, to enforce vigorous sanitary measures to check the spread of the disease.

France and China.

PARIS, July 27th.—After the council of Ministers at the Elyse Saturday, Minister Ferry held an interview with Le Fong Pao, the Chinese Embassador. It was arranged that China should pay France an indemity of 20,000,000 francs. A pacific solution of the trouble is now certain.

Twenty Persons Drowned.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 27th.—A passenger steamer on the Volga capsized to-day, and twenty persons were drowned.

Parisian Children.

After watching the endless "march past" of the children on the Champs Elysees, day after day, for half a year, I am convinced that no civilized country can muster a finer host. Their forms are as chubby, their cheeks as rosy, their eyes as bright, their teeth as pearly, their locks as thick and glossy as those of any children I have ever seen; in this last respect they excel their little island neighbors. The calves of their legs may not always be so robust as the little Briton's but they frisk and caper upon them to such a degree that they must wear off the superfluous flesh. Their spirits are inexhaustible, they seemed filled with quicksilver to the tips of their fingers and toes. They never look tired or cross, or dirty; never quarrelsome, never naughty. They are captivating little creatures, never shy nor bold, caressing and vivacious, restrained in their romps only by obedience and precocious politeness—the only precocity I can detect in them. They are graceful and gesticulating; their play is like a perpetual Liliputian pantomime or ballet.

But Paris is almost childless. Tradesmen wish their wives to help them in the shop, and in order that the wives may be free to do this, the children are put out to nurse in the country. The same custom is general among all working people. More than 50 per cent. of the children born in Paris die in the baby-farmer's hands, a correspondent declares, before they have reached their second year. Forty creches have been established in the city, but the counter-influence of these has been trifling. A nurse of whom no questions are asked charges twenty-five francs a month for the keep of a baby, but those who are registered and overlooked demand fifty francs or more. They find their customers among the prosperous middle classes, but the working people cannot afford to go to them.—[London Times.

THE LIGHT WINE CURE.—A few years ago the Chicago Tribune was zealously advocating the general use of light wines and beer as a remedy for intemperance. Total abstainers objected then, as now, to the use of these lighter beverages, as tending to develop an appetite for the stronger alcoholics. Switzerland is a wine-producing country, with the very best opportunity to test the efficacy of light wines as a safeguard against intemperance. But now comes the Chicago Tribune with a wail that Switzerland has become the most drunken country in Europe? Just what might have been expected. The much-vaunted "light-wine cure" is also a "failure."—[National Temperance Advocate.

ART OF NOT QUARRELING.—Sensible husband: "How is it that we never quarrel, Mrs. Xantippe? Well, I will tell you. One person can't make a quarrel. Now, if I am in a quarrelsome humor, and break out, my wife remains cool and collected and don't say a word. If my wife is peevish, and shows more temper than is becoming to one of her beautiful sex, I, her husband, remains as unmoved as the monument, or else cheat myself into the belief that I am listening to some heavenly song. We only quarrel one at a time, and it is astonishing, if you have a quarrel alone, how soon it dies out! That's our secret, madam; and I should advise you and all Xantippes to follow it."

WE WANT TO KNOW.

We should be happy in the personal acquaintance of the jolly covey who makes up the Associated Press dispatches from Washington. We should like to stand face to face with this mythical personality, or watch the play of his handsome features as he writes some of the interesting little items with such obscure meaning—such far-fetched significance as often emanates from his pen. We should like to watch the play of his noble features in order that we might determine whether a witicism or an imbecility is intended. Here is one of July 23d: "Commissioner of Indian Affairs Price returned to this city (Washington) to-day from Pittsburg. Speaking of the Convention now assembled in that city, Mr. Price said he did not know what the Prohibitionists were going to do." Whether the Commissioner of Indian Affairs mistook the Convention assembled at Pittsburg for a wild tribe of Apaches, and thought it his duty to investigate them officially, or whether the administration sent Mr. Price as an expert in negotiations with savages on behalf of the Republican party, or whether in the judgment of the Associated Press agent at Washington it is essential that Mr. Price's ignorance of what the Prohibitionists were going to do should be telegraphed to fifty-six millions of people, or what other consideration moved the said agent to burden the wires with this news, we now declare in the most unmistakable terms, and without fear of the personal or other responsibility involved, that we do not care a whoop-in-Hades whether Commissioner Price returned to Washington or staid in Pittsburg, and above everything else (and we say this with lofty defiance), we do not care whether Mr. Price does or does not know what the Prohibitionists are going to do. We do not know who Mr. Price may be, where he may hail from, what his antecedents may be. In short, we never heard of Commissioner of Indian Affairs Price before; whether he is a low Price, or a high Price, or a reasonable Price; but when a man returns from Pittsburg to Washington, and is asked concerning a political convention, he is bound by every consideration of ethics, morals, good breeding and political sagacity, to know something. And when in utter disregard of all the proprieties of the situation he boldly admits that he does not know what the Prohibitionists are going to do, the crime he commits is in furnishing the agent of the Associated Press at Washington with a villianous opportunity to be a first-class ass, and telegraph this absence of knowledge throughout the length and breadth of the land.

THE DEMOCRATIC HEAD.

The San Francisco Bulletin puts it epigramatically very neatly when it says that the Democratic party is the only party without democracy. It was entirely in keeping with the so-called principles of such a party that it should discard such old leaders as Thurman and Bayard, and, as the New York Tribune has it, "attempt to put a new head upon itself." But, unfortunately, fraudulent as is the body, the new head does not fit it. The whole country is beginning to ask, "Who, after all, is Grover Cleveland?" It is not a mere inquiry of curiosity, but one of sincere desire to know why a man so little known should be placed at the helm of State. If Mr. Cleveland is a man eminently fitted to be President, why has so little been discovered about him? He gave voice to one statesmanlike utterance, it is true—the veto of the Elevated Railroad fare bill—but it is altogether probable that he would fail to be as wise in the handling of great national propositions. In the veto referred to he followed the line of reason, and expressed views to which we understand the Supreme Court of the United States to have already given its sanction. Certainly he stated the law under the Constitution guaranteeing the integrity of contracts. But outside of this one wise act, what has Mr. Cleveland done to entitle him to the suffrages of the voters of the whole nation, or the repose of their confidence? This is the question the people are now asking, and as yet no man has had the assurance to attempt to answer it. If he was right—as he was—in the fare veto, he was wrong in saying that the State should not protect laboring men from exactions as to the hours of labor. The laboring class should be protected by the State when it appeals, for a number of reasons, all of which are obvious. But the main one is that the State has a supreme interest in the welfare of its working men and women, and in the conservation of their mental, moral and physical well being. It has not only the right, but it is its duty to say to the employer on street railroad lines, you shall give, not only your employees reasonable rest for their benefit, but because the people are entitled to reasonable service, and this overworked men cannot give upon lines of public travel. But the great objection to Mr. Cleveland is that he has been a Democrat at times when, if he is the man he should be, his sense of right would have revolted. As a single instance, Grover Cleveland voted with the wing of his party in 1864 that declared the war to save the Union was a failure. And this ought to be enough to condemn any man now aspiring to be the President of the Union that the war did save.

ARCTIC RESEARCH.

While the country is at this time very generally declaring against any further Arctic expeditions as unprofitable, and unnecessary sacrifices of valuable lives, it may be taken as certain that new Polar expeditions will be demanded. The spirit of discovery has not, in five hundred years, abated any of its restlessness. It will be more than restive when Lieutenant Greely shall publish the details of his observations at Lady Franklin Bay. We will be told that Greely has demonstrated that men from the temperate zone can live without serious illness or menace from exposure for two successive winters in the highest latitudes attained, so long as they are supplied with shelter, sufficient good food and fuel. The problem then to be solved is to locate stations of supplies at so many points and on a settled base of movement, and along such lines radiating therefrom as may be determined, that there will be no danger of the explorers being cut off from food and fuel. It will be shown that by erecting stations very different and more substantial than any heretofore attempted, we can stock a line of posts on both sides of the water-way from Disco island to Robeson sound. It will then be urged that an expedition sent out from the farthermost post can erect new stations and keep up communication with the base. It will be pressed upon the attention that Greely's discovery points to the reasonable probability of open water beyond the farthest point reached, and that such promise of discovery has been reopened by Greely's expedition of observation, as to justify the fitting out of new bands of explorers. The chief difficulty will be to command the necessary capital, and the necessity for vastly greater investment than ever before made for arctic research, will probably for a long time bridle the ardent spirits that are anxious, even now, to start northward. We are not moved from our original position that further expeditions are not justifiable. The world can afford for a decade or much more of time to come, to remain in ignorance of the truth concerning the polar sea, so far as governmental aid to discovery is concerned. If private capital shall fit out expeditions there can be none to object; but it is not easy to show that any considerations exist to justify the Government of the United States very soon re-engaging in the effort to fathom the regions of eternal ice.

WHAT HE VETOED.

The bill regarding hours of labor that Grover Cleveland vetoed was passed by the New York Legislature at its last session and read as follows:

Section 1. On and after the passage of this Act it shall be unlawful for any officer or agent of any railroad corporation in any of the cities of this State whose cars are drawn by horses, to exact from conductors or drivers employed by them more than twelve hours' labor for a day's work, and such corporations shall out of said twelve hours' labor allow such conductors and drivers a reasonable time to obtain meals.

Sec. 2. Any officer or agent of any such corporation who shall openly violate or otherwise evade the provisions of this Act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of not to exceed three hundred dollars, or imprisonment not to exceed six months, or both fine and imprisonment for such offense.

Cleveland declared this to be class legislation and therefore unconstitutional. But why should he have prevented the test of its constitutionality be made before the Courts? The laborers referred to had the right to test it. They were and are entitled to protection from the slavery of necessity to which the street railways of New York hold the key. The people were entitled to service by men not overworked. Suppose railroads worked their switch-men and dispatchers such hours as to render their service a serious risk to the traveling public, shall that not be prohibited by a specific act directed toward that class? Notoriously the car employes of New York are overworked, and the State has a right in its own interest to forbid it, and of right, in the interest of the employes, it should intervene.

THERE appears to have been some people who entertained doubts of the adhesion of General Grant to the Republican party in 1884. What warrant there has been for the suspicion we are unable to determine; but those whom the fact may influence can quiet their souls. A Long Branch correspondent writes that Grant is sincerely for Blaine and Logan. The General is reserved and sad because of business misfortunes, and has said that he is forever out of politics; but to his intimate friends he expresses himself occasionally on political topics, and in such moments is emphatic for the Republican ticket.

WASHINGTON society never has favored a bachelor President, and Cleveland must marry in a hurry if he expects the countenance of that political factor. It is promised that, if elected, he will marry a charming brunette, aged 35, who now resides near Poughkeepsie, N. Y., but this possibility will not satisfy Washington society. They are sure of a mistress of the White House if Mr. Blaine is chosen, and certainty is preferable to doubt with the fashionable circles.

WASHINGTON TERRITORY proposes at the next session of Congress to apply for admission to the Union. If the Democracy has its way, the application will be denied. It wants only new States that are "dead certain" mortgaged to the party.

SOMEBODY, for humanity's sake, should give the New York Herald correct information about this State. Its ideas about the recent bloodless trouble on a "grant" near Stockton are as amusing as its statements of fact are untrue.

THE health officials of San Francisco have recommended to the Board of Health of that city to direct forthwith a "house-to-house" inspection. Such an order is needed more imperatively in Sacramento.

CIRCULATION.

The Unscrupulous Methods of a Contemporary Exposed—A Challenge Renewed.

Wars between newspapers regarding circulation are always entered upon by conscientious journalists under protest. They very seldom receive much consideration from the public, and engage its attention to about the extent of any ordinary street wrangle.

There are occasions, however, in which vicious assaults, if wholly ignored, may be used for nefarious purposes, and as a means for furthering business competition according to methods the reverse of honorable. In such cases the common instincts of men dictate to them the duty of defeating the purposes of their assailants. Long suffering patience has an end, and to the policy of silent contempt there is even a limit. With us that limit has been reached regarding the persistent, shuffling, falsehood and vicious assaults and illegitimate business competition of the Daily Evening Bee, of this city, in its futile efforts, very often characterized by methods despicable and dishonorable, to harm the RECORD UNION and injure its business patronage.

Its constant misrepresentation of this journal is a matter of the smallest concern, and its opinion regarding its "journalistic integrity," the latest expression of which appeared on Saturday, is simply amusing, but the supplemental bombastic challenges regarding the circulation of this paper, concern its business department, and may not be passed by, since the Bee, according to its uniform system of juggling, would do its utmost to turn the silent contempt its challenges deserve to the furtherance of its own ends.

The Bee, with its usual exhibition of braggardism, and a vast amount of bluster, makes six challenges to the RECORD-UNION, each fortified by a bet of $100, regarding the circulation of this paper in comparison with that of the Bee, and a seventh $100, that the latter would not, if accepted, lose more than four of the seven silly wagers.

The disingenuousness of these offers necessitates the recital of some local history which is not creditable to the Bee, and utterly destroys the force, and exposes the duplicity of its insolent and insincere challenges. It will suggest itself to every candid mind that any competing journal can well afford to lose four one-hundred-dollar wagers, and in advance concede that it would lose at least that number, in order to gain access to the subscription lists and accounts of a competitor in business, whose success and admitted honorable standing in business circles are thorns in the sides of its rivals.

In February last, the Bee, trusting to the forbearance which has uniformly characterized the RECORD-UNION, flaunted at the head of its columns, in bold type, a statement that the Bee had "a larger circulation than any other paper published on the Pacific Coast, outside of San Francisco." The business manager of the RECORD-UNION, in view of this new and unblushing falsehood, deemed it worthy attention, and demanded that the Bee take down its boast, and accompanied it with a challenge set forth in the affidavit below, which also gives a history of its origin. It was drawn for publication at the time in a circular letter to the business public, but was suspended on the earnest appeal of the Bee, as explained hereafter.

OFFICE OF THE RECORD-UNION, }
SACRAMENTO, Cal., February 13, 1884. }

A PROPOSITION which was made by the RECORD-UNION and declined by the Bee, to test the latter's untrue statements regarding circulation.

Since the death of the late James McClatchy and the withdrawal of General John F. Sheehan from the Sacramento daily and weekly Bee, the new management of that journal has had more than the customary boasting at the head of its columns concerning the circulation of that paper, the purpose being, no doubt, to bolster up a failing business. This would be a matter of no special comment did it not involve a direct, unfair and baseless attack upon the business of the daily and weekly RECORD-UNION, as the constant publication of the claim to "largest circulation," and if it remained undenied, might lead strangers to conclude such statements to be true. The management of the RECORD-UNION therefore deems it a duty to the public and itself to make a statement of fact, clearly fixing the falsity of the claim of the new proprietors of the Bee. The columns of the RECORD-UNION are too valuable for news and business purposes to permit their use to refute these false assumptions, hence this method of doing so.

The recent methods of the Bee in this matter have been as follows: When the late decision on the hydraulic mining cases was rendered by Judge Sawyer, the leading papers of the State published only a synopsis of it, it being deemed by all too long to publish, and more acceptable to the reader in the shape of an intelligent synopsis. The RECORD-UNION procured the entire decision at the time it was delivered by sending two stenographic reporters to San Francisco, and the synopsis published filled nearly six columns of our paper, which was much more than any other paper in the State contained. A few days afterward, as a reward for former services of the Bee, one of the attorneys in the case and his friends raised a fund for its full publication in the Bee, the amount fully covering the entire cost, including a large number of extra copies in addition to its usual edition, to be distributed promiscuously throughout the coast. On the strength of that single, and, for it, extraordinary large edition, the Bee put at the head of its columns the affidavit of its new business manager, so worded as to convey the impression to the general public that that edition of some 12,000 copies was the regular daily issue of the paper. People who were aware of these facts were more amused than otherwise by this transparent and baldfaced ruse, knowing that if the figures were divided by four it would be fully up to the truth.

This affidavit, after repeated appearances, was supplemented by the fruit of the deception in the form of a card in the Bee, prominently displayed, as follows: "The Bee has a sworn circulation larger than any other paper published on the Pacific coast outside of San Francisco." This false and deceptive card, which challenges the circulation of any journal in the State outside of San Francisco, was based upon that single issue, and is still flaunted. It is possible that its very bravado may mislead and give the idea that it is true, on the principle that a falsehood stuck to persistently will answer the purposes of the truth.

The truth is that the circulation of the Bee is nothing worth speaking of outside of the city, and even in Sacramento between the two papers the purely local circulation does not at the present time diverge one way or the other more than fifty copies, or thereabouts.

While the managers of the RECORD-UNION entertain no fears that the mendacity of its local business rival will impair its patronage, still they do not propose to longer permit strangers to the facts to be misled or imposed upon by such false representations. Acting upon this resolution, they recently determined upon a perfectly fair course, which would expose the falsity of the Bee's boasting, and they submit to the business public the details of that plan, confident in its perfect justness. They solicited a conference with the male members of the new management of the Bee. This meeting took place February 11, 1884. There were present the McClatchy brothers, representing the Bee, and S. E. Carrington, the managing editor, and T. W. Sheehan, business manager, on the part of the RECORD-UNION. The representatives of the RECORD-UNION, then and there disclaiming any personal feeling, submitted this proposition:

1. They would name three business men, the "Bee" managers to name three also, and these six to name a seventh.

2. These seven to examine the books of both papers that show the actual circulation, and call in witnesses if necessary.

3. If said committee found the "Bee" to have, on the basis of the exhibits for the past six months, a larger circulation than the RECORD-UNION, the latter would pay over to the several charitable societies of Sacramento the aggregate sum of $1,000, gold coin, for each and every subscriber the "Bee" has in excess of the RECORD-UNION.

4. But if the examination showed that the RECORD-UNION'S circulation exceeds the "Bee's," the latter should make like payment for like purposes in the aggregate sum of $500 for each and every paper legitimately and regularly circulated by the RECORD-UNION in excess of the "Bee."

Since the managers of the RECORD-UNION know that the circulation of the Bee bears no sort of comparison to that of the RECORD-UNION, which is a paper of wide, general distribution throughout the coast, it knows that the acceptance of the offer would so enrich the treasuries of such organized charities at the expense of the Bee that, for the next half century or so, the poor under their care might live like princes, provided the ability of the Bee was equal to the call. It was for this very reason that the RECORD-UNION handicapped itself in the proposition submitted, by $500 per name. But it was stated that while the RECORD-UNION had long borne with the mendacity of the Bee, if its new managers would cease their deceptive boasting and withdraw the misleading card above quoted, the RECORD UNION would not proceed to expose the matter; that if that was not done the facts and the offer must be made public in such form as the RECORD-UNION should see fit to adopt. Coupled to and made precedent to the proposition was the further stipulation that each paper, in case the offer to test the matter was accepted, should deposit in the California State Bank the sum of $2,000, at 10 o'clock A. M. February 12, 1884—the next morning—as an initial sum in pledge of good faith, and said sum to be forfeited if either paper should fail to carry out the terms of the agreed test when once entered upon. This proposition drew out from our business neighbors no response, except that the RECORD-UNION could publish at the head of its columns whatever it pleased, and the Bee would take no notice of it.

As the managers of the Bee still continue to publish the false card, and decline to accept our offer to test its unwarranted assertion as to circulation, in which challenge we proposed a deposit of $2,000 as forfeit, and to pay $1,000 for each subscriber found in its favor, no alternative is now left us but to make this publication of facts, in order that the public may understand the mendacity of the course being pursued by the new managers of that journal. We shall be pleased to have the Bee publish this statement if it thinks proper, and a copy of it will be placed at their disposal for that purpose; but the RECORD-UNION, as already stated, will not take up valuable space in its columns with this matter unless it shall become necessary to correct and expose garbled statements which may be made by the Bee.

The fact is there is no comparison to be made between the circulation of the two papers to the discredit of the RECORD-UNION. The RECORD-UNION is, of course, not the only paper printed outside of San Francisco that has a vastly large circulation than the Bee, despite its card. The journals of other cities are probably in a position to also challenge the Bee to a test.

We have nothing to say against our business neighbor as a fairly good local paper, and equally concerned with others in the welfare of the city. It has striven to build up a general circulation, but has signally failed. The RECORD-UNION has never taken any unfair advantage of its contemporary, and does not propose to do so now or hereafter, or to discuss this business issue in its columns, and thus advertise the fact to the outside world that such a paper as the Bee exists. For this reason it has for some time ignored the silly card of the Bee, and also its challenge made a year or two ago relative to the city circulation of both papers.

T. W. SHEEHAN,
S. E. CARRINGTON.

STATE OF CALIFORNIA, } ss.
COUNTY OF SACRAMENTO. }

S. E. Carrington and T. W. Sheehan, respectively, being duly sworn, deposes and says, each for himself, that the foregoing statement has been carefully read by them, and that said statement is true in every particular to the best of their knowledge and belief.

Sworn to and subscribed before me this 15th day of February, A. D. 1884.
JOSEPH WISEMAN, Notary Public.

The intention was to print the above statement for circulation among business men in Sacramento and in adjacent towns in which the Bee has some small circulation, and among those of the press in the State receiving that paper by way of exchange. It was witheld from print for these reasons: The demand and alternative challenge of the RECORD-UNION being stated to the Bee managers, they finally took the matter under advisement. The boastful notice was, however, continued at the head of its columns for a day or two, whereupon the affidavit was prepared and a demand was made to know if the continued publication meant defiance. The response was that the Bee managers had concluded to "take down the notice"—thus admitting its falsity. But the next day it reappeared, and while a copy of the affidavit was being prepared for the printer, the business manager of the Bee appeared in the RECORD-UNION counting-room, and protested and pleaded, upon his honor, that the reappearance of the notice was due to an error on the part of the foreman of the Bee office, and not to any willful violation of the promise given; and to give emphasis to his plea, he added that the obnoxious boast had been ordered stricken from circulars prepared by the Bee soliciting patronage. On this assurance the affidavit was generously withdrawn, the notice disappeared from the Bee, and the matter was permitted to drop.

Knowledge of the methods of the Bee management—the evasions, misrepresentations and quibbling characteristic of it, and lack of faith in the sincerity of its promises, suggested the wisdom of retaining the written history of the affair as set forth in the affidavit, and justify departure at this time from the original resolution not to burden these columns with it. It becomes necessary, also, to print it, in order to show the former challenge of this paper, and to give it to be understood that it is renewed and stands good at this time, and will remain to confront the Bee's mendacity. If there is anything but braggadocio in the pitiful wagers of the Bee it now has a second opportunity to accept a challenge that will fairly test its sincerity.

The plea set up by our contemporary that the size of its "sack" does not enable it to make its wager more generous in amount, while it ill comports with its boast of broad circulation and extended business, and is evidently intended as an intimation that it receives no assistance outside of business earnings. This comes with astonishing effrontery from a paper concerning which it is demonstrable that its "stack," as it chooses to term its revenue, has been fed from extraneous sources, and concerning which fact the Bee will be the last to challenge publicity, or demand at our hands the proofs of the assertion.

As evidence of the thin mask with which the Bee has sought to disguise its discreditable methods, and to fully expose the means it has employed to willfully mislead the public regarding its circulation and its value as a business medium, it is necessary to cite the fact that subsequent to the date on which the Bee was forced to take down its untrue boast, as recited in the foregoing affidavit, it caused to be published in "Phillips' Newspaper Rate Book," (published by John F. Phillips & Co., New York), with a view to deceiving Eastern advertisers, the same false statement the RECORD-UNION compelled it to withdraw from its columns. In the said rate book, page 41, it publishes these words: "Sworn circulation January 14, 1884, 12,000," thereby willfully intending the reader to believe falsely that its regular circulation is 12,000, and not that it was by special edition 12,000 on one day, as this entire community knows to be the fact. Possibly Phillips & Co. had such cheating in mind when, in their preface to the rate book, they say: "There appears to be some things in this world sanctioned by custom, where it is all right to lie. Stating circulation of a newspaper is one of the most prominent." On page 178 of the same book appears another of the Bee's advertisments, in which it is stated that it has the "largest circulation in California, outside of San Francisco, per the sworn statement of its business manager." The sworn statement referred to is, of course, that concerning the 12,000 copies issued as a special edition January 14, 1884.

The dishonesty thus exposed is not greater than the hollowness of the constant boast of the Bee concerning the news it publishes, as is evidenced by the fact that its telegraphic advices cost it from $400 to $500 per month, while the cost to the RECORD-UNION for telegraphic service some months more than quadruples the largest sum.

It should be possible for the Bee to conduct its business on an honorable basis, and to depart for that purpose from its recent course, which justifies the assumption that its new management has "lost its head." It will, at least, no longer be permitted to continue, through its columns, agents or solicitors, to assail the business of the RECORD-UNION, or persist in its unmanly attempt to undermine or misrepresent it to the business community.

We do not anticipate, however, any immediate change in the course of the Bee. It will, as is customary with it, and of which this community has had much evidence, evade, pervert, misrepresent, misconstrue and garble the plain statements herein made. But it cannot at least afford to misunderstand the full import of the challenge of the RECORD-UNION, which we once more repeat is renewed in all its original integrity, and stands ready for acceptance by our contemporary.

MONMOUTH PARK RACES.

[By telegraph.]

NEW YORK, July 26th.—This was the eleventh day of the Monmouth Park meeting. The track was fast and the attendance large. The first race was a free handicap sweepstakes of one mile, which Rica won; Buckstone second, Lizzie Mac third. Time, 1:43. The second race, the Seabright stakes, for 2-year-olds, three-quarters of a mile, Wanda won with ease by two lengths; Chalula second and Kinsman third. Time, 1:16½. The Raritan stakes, for 3-year-olds, one and a quarter miles, St. Saviour won by two lengths; Minicolt second, Huron third. Time, 2:11½. The fourth race, free handicap sweepstakes, one and one quarter miles, Duplex drew away at once and won under a pull by a length and a half; Girofla beat Aranza by a nose for second place. Time, 2:12½. In the fifth race, the Billow stakes, handicap sweepstakes, Patapsco and Pasha made the running throughout. In the stretch Pasha drew away and won easily by three lengths; Patapsco second, Laura Gould third. Time, 1:32½. The French pools paid $12 50. The sixth race was for a purse of $500, for 3-year-olds and upward, the winner to be sold at auction, one mile and one furlong. The starters were Lutestring, Clonniel, Dan K., Hartford and Goliad. In the pools Hartford sold for $150, Lutestring $95, Dan K. $45, and the field $25. Betting was five to three on Hartford, three to one against Clonniel and Goliad. Hartford got off in front and Dan K. at once took the track to the three-quarter pole. Dan K. led into the stretch, but when well straightened out Hartford came up and won with ease; Lutestring second, Dan K. third. Time, 1:58½. The French pools paid $9 50. The winner, who was entered to be sold for $1,500, was bought in for $2,100.

COST FOR NOSE PAINTING.—A recent calculation about the consumers' cost of spirits and beer used annually in Illinois has led the St. Louis Republican to a similar calculation for the whole country. We know from the Government statistics that there are about 170,000 retail liquor dealers in the country. If they have an income of about $15 a day, the Republican finds that the total is $930,730,000 annually. During the latest fiscal year taxes were paid on about 72,000,000 gallons of spirits and nearly 17,000,000 barrels of beer. A gallon of spirits is said to make nearly a hundred drinks, costing about 10 cents each, thus yielding $720,000,000. The beer consumed is about 4,216,000,000 pints, which, at 5 cents a pint, makes about $210,000,000. Thus, in two different ways, the conclusion is arrived at that the people of this country pay annually for the beer and whisky which they drink $930,000,000.

Found Dead.

STOCKTON, July 27th.—The dead body of Henry Walters, a farm laborer, was found to-day in a wheat field about nine miles from Stockton, on the Linden road. The body had lain there about a week and was badly decomposed. The deceased was a native of Prussia, aged 38 years. He leaves a wife in San Francisco, and a brother in Nevada City. He was known to have been sick for some time, and the conclusion is that he died from natural causes.

OREGON.

Prominent Stock-Raiser Missing.

PORTLAND, July 27th.—E. A. Kramer, a prominent stock-raiser, residing near Foster, Umatilla county, Oregon, has been missing since the 15th instant. He has been herding a band of horses near Castle Rock, and had been crossing some at that point when last heard from. The Indians in that region have long objected to parties running their stock on the Washington Territory side of the Columbia, and it is thought he has been foully dealt with by the Indians, as he was known to have quite a sum of money on his person at the time. His blankets and Winchester rifle were found not far from the ferry on the Yakima side.

Democratic State Central Committee.

The Democratic State Central Committee met in San Francisco Saturday afternoon. There was a full attendance, and W. D. English, Chairman, presided. The vacancies caused by the resignation of Presidential Electors and alternates were taken up and considered. The resignation of Charles Kohler having been withdrawn, and the gentleman consenting to be a candidate for Elector at large, his name was placed at the head of the ticket. The electoral ticket, as officially announced by the committee, is now as follows:

Electors at Large—Charles Kohler, of San Francisco; Thomas H. Laine, of Santa Clara, alternate; C. P. Berry, of Sutter; John T. Harrington, of Colusa, alternate.

First Congressional District—W. J. Tinnin, of Trinity; Edward Swinford, of Colusa, alternate.

Second Congressional District—G. G. Goucher, of Mariposa; F. D. Nichol, of Tuolumne, alternate.

Third Congressional District—John A. Stanley, of Alameda; Nathaniel Jones, of Contra Costa, alternate.

Fourth Congressional District—George T. Marye, of San Francisco; Dr. J. M. Eaton, of San Francisco, alternate.

Fifth Congressional District—James T. Murphy, of Santa Clara; Edward White, of Santa Cruz, alternate.

Sixth Congressional District—W. H. Webb, of Monterey; A. J. Atwell, of Tulare, alternate.

The committee discussed informally the question of elections in the twenty odd Senatorial districts, but beyond exchanging views on the subject, nothing was done, and the committee adjourned.

Nuptial Fancies.

Marriages take place at all kinds of places—from caprice, love of notoriety and sometimes from untoward circumstances. Recently a couple were united in a railroad car; the stage coach has furnished the place where the bridal vows have been spoken; people have been married on horseback, in towers and balloons. The writer once participated in a wedding on the piazza of a summer cottage on one of the Thousand Islands, the moonlight glinting the majestic river that flowed beneath, and crowning the fair bride with such splendor as the king's daughters might envy. Niagara has witnessed the marriage vows, and behind the bridal veil of Minnehaha Falls many a couple have been made one.

A Brooklyn minister several years ago married a couple from his chamber window, telling them to come 'round in the morning and sign the necessary papers. The making out of the preliminary papers, if the clergyman is a man of tact, is usually done after the ceremony, for not seldom is there a marked hesitancy on the part of the contracting parties in answering the fatal question of age. Many times have the eyes of the bridegroom opened wide as the tally of years counted some half a dozen more in the presence of the clergyman than in the prenuptial confidences of private conversation and though the records are attested as true, to the best of the signers knowledge and belief, yet there have been occasions in the experience of every minister when he had been very certain that by some strange magic at least half a dozen years have dropped out of the recollection of the antique but happy bride.

Strange accidents sometimes happen in the preparation of the certificate. The writer once spoiled the bridal tour of a young bride by accidentally copying the father's instead of the son's name from the Health Board return lying before him. The bride was in great alarm, and at once on her return she visited the minister in great distress, saying, "You have married me to the wrong man." It was with no little difficulty that she was persuaded that a new certificate would make the old gentleman her father-in-law instead of her husband.—[Brooklyn Eagle.

A Colossus of Colossi.

In the course of the excavations at San (Zoan-Tanis) there have been disclosed several portions of a red granite colossal statue of Rameses II., which, when whole, must have been the largest statue known. It appears to have been a standing figure of the usual type, crowned with the crown of Upper Egypt, and supported up the back by a pilaster. Judging from the dimensions of various parts, such as the ear and the instep, and comparing the proportionate size of the cartouches (which are three feet wide) with those engraved upon other statues, this colossus must have been 98 feet high from the foot to the crown. Together with its pedestal, which we can scarcely doubt was in one piece with it, it would altogether be about 115 feet high. The great toe measures 18 inches across. That it was a monolith is almost certain, from the fact that all the largest statues are without any joint; nor does this seem incredible, since there are obelisks nearly as long. But this may claim to be the tallest and heaviest statue that we know of, as the figure alone would weigh 700 tons, to which the accessories would probably add as much again. A total weight of 1,200 tons is most likely under, rather than over, the actual sum. The statue has been cut up into building blocks by Sheshank III., and used in the construction of the great pylon; hence, only small pieces of a few tons each are now to be seen.—[W. Flinders Petne's Report.

A mine known as the Copper King, owned by Messrs. Spencer & Ridenour, located in the Grand Canyon of the Colorado, about sixty miles from Peach Springs, A. T., has been examined in the interests of California capitalists, and the report was so favorable, the ore by assay yielding from 40 to 80 per cent. copper and $15 to $16 silver, that they intend to develop the same.

A CORRECT MEASURE.—For many years past the professional politicians have been practically absolute. They have been the Pretorians of our city. They have distributed the offices among themselves, and have prostituted the ballot to their own purposes. They regard our municipal revenue as their private fortune. It is theirs to appropriate and squander according to the dictates of their pleasure and convenience. They make a business of politics. It is almost their sole occupation. No part or detail is neglected by them. They swarm around the primaries, they infest the conventions, they obstruct the polls, they supervise, and of course, if necessary, pervert the count of the votes. These men follow politics as an avocation solely for one object, and that object is money. They are insensible to every instinct of honor, of patriotism, of laudable ambition. They are indifferent to public opinion, and simply scorn honest criticism. They are so many bandits that deliberately plunder the people under the transparent pretext of serving them.—[Jersey City Argus.

TUTT'S PILLS

TORPID BOWELS, DISORDERED LIVER, and MALARIA.

From these sources arise three-fourths of the diseases of the human race. These symptoms indicate their existence: Loss of Appetite, Bowels costive, Sick Headache, fullness after eating, aversion to exertion of body or mind, Eructation of food, Irritability of temper, Low Spirits, A feeling of having neglected some duty, Dizziness, Fluttering at the Heart, Dots before the eyes, highly colored Urine, CONSTIPATION, and demand the use of a remedy that acts directly on the Liver. As a Liver medicine TUTT'S PILLS have no equal. Their action on the Kidneys and Skin is also prompt; removing all impurities through these three "scavengers of the system," producing appetite, sound digestion, regular stools, a clear skin and a vigorous body. TUTT'S PILLS cause no nausea or griping nor interfere with daily work and are a perfect

DON'T BE MISLED BY REPRESENTATIONS of full iron frames in Upright Pianos as being equal to the MATHUSHEK, for upon examination it will be found that the MATHUSHEK Upright Piano is the only Piano that has a cup of wood bushing forced into solid iron, into which the tuning pins are set, which no other Piano has. Forester Gun Club Shoot.

The Forester Gun Club held its monthly pigeon shoot at Agricultural Park yesterday morning. Following is the score of the main match:

The main match was followed by a sweepstake, $2 50 entrance, 21 yards, 5 birds:

The ties were decided at a freezeout, 31 yards:

H. Gerber	1 1 1 1 1 1 1—7
Watson	1 1 1 1 1 1 0—6
Parrott	1 1 1 1 1 0 —5

The next match was for $5 entrance, 21 yards, 10 birds:

Parrott	1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1—10

Todd and Parrott shot off at 31 yards, freezeout, Parrott winning, Todd having lost his first bird.

ACCIDENTALLY DROWNED.—Yesterday John Miller, Augustus C. Radomsky, E. C. Falke and wife, and a man whose first name is Philip, his other name being unknown to those whom he accompanied, went down the river about two miles, to a point on the Yolo side, in the vicinity of Paine's hop ranch, on a fishing excursion. During the afternoon one of the men proposed that they should go in swimming, and the party separated for that purpose. Miller and Radomsky went down stream a few hundred yards, undressed and entered the water, where Miller especially enjoyed himself in the swell of a passing steamer. Presently Falke called to them to come up stream and join him, and they commenced making their way in that direction. After a while Radomsky got caught in some brush, and had great difficulty in extricating himself. Directly after his struggle he heard Falke calling "Catch him!" and, looking around for Miller, could only see his hands above the surface, he having also, probably, got entangled in the brush and failed to extricate himself. Radomsky swam to where he had been last seen, but he never reappeared. Falke also swam to the scene, and the other man came with the boat, and were joined by some fishermen who were near by. Some of the latter dived after the unfortunate man, but the current was swift and the water very deep, and their efforts were unsuccessful. Miller was a painter by trade, and came here about two months since from San Francisco, where he at one time kept a grocery at or near the corner of Vallejo and Kearny streets. He was about 26 years of age.

FATAL ENCOUNTER.—The Galt Gazette says that in response to a telegram from her daughter, Mrs. Wiser left Galt Monday evening for Las Vegas ranch, Lincoln county, Nevada, near the Arizona line. The dispatch contained the sad news of the murder of Archie Stewart, son-in-law of Mrs. Wiser and husband of her eldest daughter, Ellen, who was raised in the immediate vicinity of Galt. An Associated dispatch, dated at Pioche, Nevada, July 21st, gives the following account of the shooting: "A traveler from the south relates that on the 12th inst., near the Arizona line, at Las Vegas ranch, Archie Stewart, the proprietor, on returning home from El Dorado canyon, saw Hank Parrish, with whom he had previously quarreled, sitting in the door. Stewart dismounted, tied his horse and approached the house, firing his pistol at Parrish, who reached for a shotgun, which he found to be unloaded. Stewart fired a second shot, when Parrish obtained a Winchester rifle, which was also unloaded, and he went behind the door to load it. Stewart, advancing, fired again, and as he came into the house and around the door, Parrish, having loaded the rifle, fired, the bullet penetrating Stewart's head, killing him instantly. Parrish received only one wound, a slight one inside the arm. Stewart leaves a wife and three children, and was possessed of considerable property."

COLE'S CIRCUS.—Announcement is made that W. W. Cole's great circus will appear in Sacramento on Thursday, August 28th, on which occasion excursion trains will be run from neighboring towns. The features of the show include a greater number of performers than any other institution of the kind has brought to the coast, among them being male and female acrobats, bicycle riders, trapeze performers, leapers, male and female riders, Bedouin Arabs, an unequaled number of trained horses, etc. The performances will be given in three rings, and on an elevated stage at the same time, forty-five acts being presented at each performance, and the audience must be hard to please that cannot find something of interest in one ring or the other from the time of the first appearance to the close of the entertainment. The menagerie in connection with the circus contains forty cages of rare wild animals, including a white hippopotamus, a two-horned rhinoceros, elephants, camels, etc.

LE MAY'S REPORT.—Le May Bros.' London hop circular, of July 7th, makes the following report: The trade doing is purely consumptive and sufficient to cause a gradual advance in values. Stocks never were so small. If any speculative demand were to set in prices would advance considerably. The crop prospects are very poor, thousands of acres in a black blight. Those grounds that have been persistently washed now appear to be fairly clean, but unfortunately mold is prevalent in many plantations that looked like pulling through the black blight. Every planter on Hastings market Saturday spoke of an increase of lice. We should estimate the crop to turn out equal to £100,000 to £150,000 old duty, or about equal to from one-third to one-half of our annual consumption.

REAL ESTATE AT AUCTION.—Sherburn & Smith will sell at auction at 11 A. M. today, the very desirable residence and full lot on the northeast corner of Fourteenth and F streets. The house contains six rooms, bathroom and summer kitchen, and the lot is well improved with choice shrubbery, fruit and shade trees. The title is perfect and an abstract will be furnished.

THREE THOUSAND DOLLARS' worth of ladies' and misses' cloaks at about 50 cents on the $1, all new and nice styles, from the great importing house of O'Neil & Stuart. Also, five cases blankets, white and colored, at greatly under the price, now for sale today. Red House.

Admission Day.

The Native Sons' Committee of Arrangements for their celebration on September 9th are meeting with every encouragement in their work. Invitations have been sent to all organized bodies and societies of every kind in this city to participate in the procession, and favorable responses have been received from many. Saturday evening the Invitation Committee waited upon the Sacramento Society of Pioneers, and requested them to assist in making the celebration an event surpassing anything of the kind ever witnessed in this city. They were urged to forward invitations to all Societies of Pioneers in the State, requesting them to participate, making the day by this means the occasion of a grand reunion of Pioneers as well as of Native Sons. After deliberation, the Society decided to adopt the suggestion, and will invite all Pioneers to visit the city and participate in the celebration. They also appointed a committee of five—consisting of Messrs. A. Logan, A. H. Powers, A. Leonard, F. H. Russel and P. S. Lawson—to co-operate with the Native Sons in securing subscriptions to the fund from which the expenses of the celebration are to be defrayed, and in making the necessary local preparations. It is expected that each Parlor, as well as the Sacramento Society of Pioneers, will keep open house at their respective quarters for the entertainment of visiting delegations and friends, after the fashion of the Knights Templar during the Conclave. The prospects now are that at least 1,500 Native Sons will be in line, besides several companies of military, and numerous civic societies. Almost every visiting Parlor will bring a band, together with its local military companies or other uniformed society as an escort. The number of Pioneers who will be in line cannot now be estimated, but it will certainly be large, and it is safe to assert that the parade will present a more imposing appearance numerically, as well as by reason of its special features of display, than any ever before seen in this city.

In addition to those visitors who come to take part in the celebration it is estimated that at least three or four times as many others will accompany them to the city. Such of the Native Sons as are so fortunate propose to bring their wives and sisters with them, where possible, and to stay during a portion of the fair.

The San Francisco Parlors, about 500 strong, have already arranged to come on a special train, and have tickets at reduced rates for the round trip, good until the following Sunday. They have already secured the names of 700 visitors, who intend to accompany them.

While the Canvassing Committee have met with fair success and liberal donations in most cases, so far as they have gone, they wish to have it stated that in some instances, among prominent business men, the importance of this matter as a financial benefit to this city does not seem to be understood. Sacramento has always been liberal and aggressive in securing any attraction which will bring trade to her people, and certainly should not now be slow to realize the benefits to accrue from a creditable display of her hospitality and liberality. In comparison with an ordinary Fourth of July, or other celebration of like nature, this Admission Day celebration will be of tenfold more value from a business point of view. This is easily demonstrated when it is remembered that ordinarily every surrounding village has its own little "blow out," and the people stay at home, the visitors being mainly farmers from within a few miles of the city, who return home the same evening, while on this occasion every town and village for miles around will contribute to the throng of sightseers, while the thousands of visiting participants will be of a class many of whom have never before seen Sacramento, and who come with the intention of staying at least during a portion of the fair. A committee will visit the Board of Trustees this morning to ask of them a similar donation to that made to the Fourth of July Committee. When the relative importance of the two events to the business interests of the city are considered, it cannot be doubted that this request is reasonable. The Trustees have shown a commendable desire to extend assistance to everything calculated to advance the material interests of the city, and doubtless they will aid, to a reasonable extent, a celebration that will advertise Sacramento through the State and bring to our city visitors who will see the capital to its best advantage. Every effort should be made by our citizens to aid the young men in their undertaking, which is to them a labor of love, while to others it is a substantial and important matter of business.

CAUGHT IN HIS OWN TRAP.—The following from the Plumas National will no doubt be read with interest by many Sacramentans, as Mr. Thomas resided in this county in the vicinity of Elk Grove for many years: "For some time past D. R. Thomas, of Poorman's Creek, has had reason to suspect that his sluices were being tampered with, but could not catch the rascals, and he concluded to set a trap for them. A quicksilver tank was loaded with powder, spikes, rusty nails, etc., and a wire carried along the flume in such a way that a touch would explode the torpedo. On Wednesday evening, after supper, Mr. Thomas and one of his men went to the flume, and while about ten feet from the torpedo he accidentally touched the wire with his foot. The explosion which instantly followed was terrific. Mr. Thomas stood with one side exposed, and was fearfully wounded, the nails and iron striking him in the leg, side, shoulder and face. No bones were broken, but the wounds were very severe. The other man was only scratched. Mr. Thomas was taken to La Porte, but Dr. Mussey advised him to go to San Francisco, and he was taken down on Wednesday night. He is thought to be dangerously injured, and the worst results are feared."

DID NOT SUCCEED.—Friday evening officers Sullivan and Coffey observed three men of the sharper persuasion standing opposite the Western Hotel, as if waiting for some one. After a while a countryman came out of the hotel, and one of the sharpers crossed the street and entered into conversation with him, offering to sell what looked like a massive gold ring, with the initials "J. S." upon it, which he said he had just found on the sidewalk. A friend of the countryman came up about that time and took the latter away, being evidently suspicious of the sharper. The officers inquired of the countryman what proposition had been made to him, immediately arrested the sharp-practice individual, and were going after his companions, when they took to their heels, running like quarter horses and disappeared. The ring was of lead, washed with gold.

POLICE COURT.—In the Police Court Saturday Charles Brink, charged with having been drunk, and Madame Agnaux, accused of exhibiting, forfeited their deposits...... George Borcher, for battery, was sentenced to pay a fine of $15 or fifteen days......John O'Neil was convicted of battery, and will appear for judgment to-day......Frank Sanders, for disturbing the peace, was fined $10......G. W. Ricker, for misdemeanor, was fined $15.

ANOTHER BLAINE AND LOGAN CLUB.—Precinct 4½ Blaine and Logan Club was organized at the store of George Leichthardt, Eighteenth and M streets, Saturday evening. Temporary officers were elected, and about twenty citizens signed the roll. There will be another meeting of the club at the same place at 8 o'clock next Wednesday evening.

SALE POSTPONED.—The sale of the residence property of Matt Karcher, on G street, between Thirteenth and Fourteenth, which was to have been conducted to-day by D. J. Simmons & Co., has been postponed until Monday, August 4th.

THIS WEEK FOR BARGAINS.—After a corps of men for 8 days' hard labor, we can say that now the great bankrupt stock of O'Neil & Stuart is all marked in plain figures and ready for sale this morning at 8 o'clock. To-day and to-morrow five cases remnants of all kinds, such as flannels, muslins, shirtings, dress goods, etc., etc. New display of hosiery, fans, purses, skirts, buttons, etc. Red House.

Fish Commissioners.

The State Board of Fish Commissioners met at the Union Hotel in this city last Saturday, all the members present.

The President, Mr. Buckingham, read a letter from Livingston Stone, stating that the United States Fish Commission will not maintain a hatchery on the McCloud river this season, nor would they endeavor to take any salmon eggs on this Coast.

A communication was read from W. B. Bradford, of the Sacramento Packing Company, stating that Constable Jones was talking of selling his boat and leaving the service of the State. Mr. Bradford asked that Mr. Jones be retained. He said that Mr. Jones was the right man in the right place; he knew the river and those engaged in fishing, and was the only man that the Greeks, Portuguese and others would respect. Allow him to leave the river, and you at once turn over its waters to the depredations of a lawless lot of pirates. He said that the canneries would guarantee to pay Constable Jones for the months of July and August $300.

Mr. Jones appeared before the Board and contracted to patrol the river during the months of July and August with two boats for $800.

Commissioner Redding, referring to a statement made by a Mr. Carberry at the last meeting of the Board, said he desired to correct that statement, as it reflected upon the integrity of the old Board of Fish Commissioners, of which his father was a member. Mr. Carberry stated that $3,000 had been appropriated for the construction of a fish ladder on Hat creek, $600 only having been used, intimating that the balance of the appropriation had been pocketed by the Commission. This was entirely false. The money appropriated came out of the general fund, and the Act provided that any money remaining after the actual expenses had been paid would revert to the fund, and even were the Commissioners desirous of using the money such a thing would be impossible. Twenty-two hundred dollars was expended in the construction of the ladders; the bills were passed upon by the Board of Examiners and found to be correct. The statements, he claimed, were false in every particular. The statement made by Mr. Redding was concurred in by the other members of the Board.

A letter was received from Otto Graman, Fish Commissioner of Wyoming, asking for rainbow trout eggs.

The District Attorney of Alpine county complained by letter of dams being constructed in the streams of that county without proper fish ladders.

On motion of Mr. Dibble, the matter of adopting plans and specifications for fish ladders was referred to Commissioner Redding, with full power to act.

In speaking of the Shebley hatchery Mr. Dibble said that out of the 30,000 salmon eggs received 28,000 had been hatched, and were thriving nicely. Forty thousand rainbow trout eggs had also been hatched without perceptible loss, and have been variously distributed. Seven thousand landlocked salmon have been planted in Independence lake. There are 250,000 trout three weeks old at the Shebley hatchery now ready for distribution. Twenty-five thousand have been planted in Sonoma county streams, and 25,000 in Modoc. Fully 100,000 more trout will be hatched this season.

The following resolution was introduced by Commissioner Redding, and adopted unanimously:

WHEREAS, We are powerless to proceed financially with the hatchery on the McCloud river, the United States having withdrawn its aid; therefore be it

Resolved, That at the next meeting of the Legislature we make an effort to have a bill introduced and passed making an especial appropriation for the establishment and maintenance of a State hatchery and distributing station on the McCloud river.

The Commission then adjourned for one month.

DEMOCRATIC MEETING.—The Democracy held a public meeting in the new Pavilion building Saturday evening, which was attended by about one hundred persons. The object of the call was the establishment of a Cleveland and Hendricks fire brigade. Trustee Nielsen was elected Chairman, and Samuel Leake, Secretary. Speeches were made by Hon. A. B. Dibble, R. M. Clarken, Colonel Tobin, and State Controller John P. Dunn. The club starts out with forty-six members. The following general committee met yesterday afternoon at the Capital Hotel: First Ward, Samuel Johnston; Second, D. J. Considine; Third, Dr. A. L. Nichols, J. N. Payne; Fourth, E. G. Blessing. The committee canvassed the question of night of meeting, hall, regalia, etc., and adjourned, after appointing committees on each, until 8 P. M. to-day.

CHURCH DEDICATION.—The First Baptist Church of this city was formally dedicated yesterday. The edifice was erected several years ago, but has not been dedicated, owing to the fact that a mortgage of several thousand dollars hung over it until quite recently, when it was paid off. Two dedication sermons were preached, one in the morning and the other in the evening. The first was preached by Dr. Frost, pastor of the church. The other by Rev. W. H. Pendleton, D. D., pastor of the Church of the Pilgrims, San Francisco. The morning and evening services were both largely attended. The Calvary Baptist Church congregation attended in a body. The subject of the evening discourse was "The Two Mountains."

KNIGHTS OF SHERWOOD FOREST.—The Uniformed Rank of the Knights of Sherwood Forest gave their first annual picnic at Richmond Grove on Saturday. The attendance was large throughout the day and evening. The Committee of Arrangements spared neither pains nor expense to make everything pleasant. The games were fifteen in number, and engaged in by many. The Committee of Arrangements were as follows: Ed. H. McKee, H. W. M. Ogg, J. F. Best, B. F. Parsons, George J. Berger and J. W. Hughes.

BAY DISTRICT RACES.—Entries for the August meeting of the Bay District Association, which closed last Monday, did not fill promisingly, and but three of the races proposed will "go." These are the 2:40 class, for which Guy Wilkes, Blanche, James H. and Colonel Hawkins are named; the 2:27 class, for which the entries are Adair, Bob H., B. B., Tump Winston, Sister, Marvin, Adrian and Rarus, Jr.; and the 2:22 class, with Allan Roy, Arab, Albert W. and Vanderlyn. The races take place August 2d, 6th and 8th.

PROPOSALS WANTED.—Geo. Theobald, Jr., Secretary of the Sutter County Land Company, advertises for bids for building three and a half miles of levee, estimated at 278,000 cubic yards; also for completing one and a half miles of levee commenced last year, amounting to 75,374 yards. All the work must be done by January 1, 1885. The land is situated thirteen miles from Marysville, midway between the Feather and Sacramento rivers. Bids should be sent in at once.

CITY TREASURY.—The following sums were paid into the city treasury for the week ending Saturday, July 26th: By Joseph N. Herndon, cemetery dues, $11; A. S. Woods, water rates, $1,316 50; A. Brewer, harbor dues, $20; W. A. Henry, Police Court fines, $40; George A. Putnam, city licenses, $1,120 80; dog licenses, $66 24; special tax, $3,301 74. Total, $5,876 28. Disbursements, $3,274 15, leaving in the treasury, $302,057 47.

COMMERCIAL.—The following vessels arrived at Sacramento since last report: San Joaquin, No. 2, from San Francisco, with general merchandise and barge of freight for the upper Sacramento. Departed: Steamer Varuna, for the upper Sacramento, with a barge of freight; San Joaquin, No. 2, for San Francisco with a barge of grain. The steamer C. M. Small passed the city en route from San Francisco to Marysville, having in tow a barge of freight.

The Ornamental Spending of Money.

This sudden accession of wealth has greatly affected manners. The ornamental spending of money requires an education of several generations, and wealth has of late years come by millions to people unaccustomed to the spending of money. Lavish display has naturally been the result, and wasteful, almost criminal, indulgence has become the habit of whole classes—criminal because a false fashion is set up by the example, and is forced on those upon whom it bears hardly. If you dine with a young man at his club or a young officer at his mess, for example, this false fashion demands that he should give you champagne to drink, and so entails upon him an expenditure of generally double his day's pay. Extravagances, however, are common to all generations, and generally right themselves in the long run. There is nothing new under the sun. Chaucer declaimed against the extravagance of ladies' long skirts, and if we spend more money upon sparkling wines than we are justified in doing we have at all events improved in other ways. A three-bottle man is more rare now than a black swan, and the continual "nipping" of fifteen years ago has given place to more wholesome habits. We are luxurious, perhaps, but our luxury has brought with it a refinement that is having a very beneficial effect on the national health.—[All the Year Round.

BRIEF NOTES.

The Sacramento river is down to 12 feet 3 inches.

Three carloads of immigrants arrived from the East yesterday.

Sacramento county's gold mines in the vicinity of Folsom are said to yield between $4,000 and $6,000 per year.

During the past week a construction train has been ballasting and repairing the railroad track between Florin and Elk Grove.

As the western passenger train was leaving the city yesterday forenoon the express car got off the track, and the train was delayed forty minutes.

At the special election in Elder School District Friday, the proposition to levy a special tax of $300 for school purposes was carried unanimously.

In Department Two of the Superior Court Saturday John Hughes, a native of Ireland, was admitted to citizenship on the testimony of George O. Bates and Martin Hughes.

The State's general fund is exhausted. Warrants for the thirty-sixth fiscal year up to and including No. 152 are payable. Holders of other claims will have to wait for their money.

Derrick car No. 1, which is also the first of the Central Pacific cars built here, has recently been rebuilt, and is now ready for service. There is nothing left of the original car but the wheels.

James Boyle, one of the car-repairing force, was seized with a fit yesterday morning at the depot, probably in consequence of his working in the hot sun, and had to be taken home in a carriage.

These arrests were made Saturday and yesterday: Sam Horn, by officer Sullivan, for disturbing the peace; Cora Childs, by officer Coffey, for exhibiting; Mike Turnin, by officers Ash and Franks, for disturbing the peace.

The Elk Grove Free Press of Saturday says: The crop is on the move. The first shipment of three cars went to Sacramento from Elk Grove Wednesday. The wheat in this portion of the valley is plump and of excellent growth.

John Donnovan, who was arrested last Thursday by officer Kent on suspicion of his being an escape from the Insane Asylum, proved to be such, and he was taken back to Stockton by Deputy Sheriff Newbert yesterday.

Gregory, Barnes & Co., of this city, shipped seven carloads of fruit and vegetables Saturday. The freight was not all packed here, some of it being loaded at Wheatland and Marysville, but it was all billed from Sacramento.

P. Flaherty, L. W. Farrell, J. M. Woods, Tom O'Neil, Chas. Heinrich and James McCarty left yesterday for a three weeks' camping trip to Lake county. Officers Woods and Farrell, it may be mentioned, leave substitutes to attend to their duties.

The footrace that was to have taken place at Agricultural Park yesterday afternoon was declared off, as only three of the eight persons entering paid their entrance money. Mr. Allen returned the gate money to those who had paid to see the race.

The police have been looking for two or three days for Edward Corville, who is accused of tampering with a girl 11 years of age. When he found that his conduct had become known, he disappeared, and the officers have been unable to ascertain his whereabouts.

It is rumored that an effort is being made to have Governor Stoneman remove Registrar James A. Johnson, because of variances as to Democratic politics. It is also rumored that the Governor is being urged to make some changes as regards the San Francisco Police Commissioners.

The Methodist Episcopal Church of Cucomonga, San Bernardino county, filed articles of incorporation in the office of the Secretary of State Saturday. The Directors are: K. Almine, D. Moote, Lewis Smith, Francis Smith, Russell R. Cochran, M. C. Buffington and J. S. Garcia.

The case of Daniel Meyer et al. vs. J. N. Porter, City Treasurer, came up for hearing before Judge McFarland Saturday, and, on motion of McKune & George, it was ordered that the city be permitted to become a party to said action, and that it be allowed to file its complaint in intervention.

Somebody or something was interfering very frequently yesterday afternoon with the fire-alarm telegraph wires, and the frequent tapping of the alarm bell which resulted caused citizens as well as firemen much annoyance. Is there not a city ordinance for the protection of the fire telegraph?

Jack Williams, under the influence of liquor, a severe gash on the scalp and a shocking bad eye, applied at the station-house yesterday to have his hurts dressed, saying that he had been damaged in the Forester Saloon, K street, between Front and Second, by some one whose name he would not disclose.

Frank S. Snell, formerly General Delivery Clerk at the Postoffice in this city, has gone to San Francisco, having accepted a position in a wholesale house, and George F. Aaron, formerly letter carrier, has been promoted to fill the vacancy. Delacy E. Kerr has been appointed letter carrier, vice Aaron, and William Cochrane appointed substitute carrier, vice Kerr.

In St. Rose Church Saturday morning a requieum high mass was celebrated for the repose of the soul of Rev. Father Pettit, of Willows, concerning whose death reference has been made in this paper. Rev. Father Callan, of Marysville, officiated, and Rev. Father Grace pronounced the eulogy. The following were present in the sanctuary during the mass: Very Rev. Fathers Dalton of Grass Valley, Meagher of Nevada City, Fanham of the same place and Leahy of Auburn. The remains of the dead pastor were taken in the afternoon to Marysville for interment in the priests' cemetery.

Advice to Mothers.—Mrs. Winslow's SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes "as bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhea, whether arising from teething or other causes. CHANGED EVERY DAY FOR THE MECHANICS' STORE.

Saturday's buyers skipped over many of the best things in the Boys' marked down clothing.

Happily for those who could not attend then, the chances for a good investment will be quite as great to-day. Only difference, fewer suits.

Very little romance in the history of these Phillipe Suitings! The maker expected them to sell for considerably over $1 a yard. Our price, 75 cents. Pretty, Stylish and in Season. Nine tintings.

LORD SPENCER.

Curious history that! Those who have read late fashion journals can hardly have failed to notice the furor over the revival of SPENCER WAISTS for Ladies. It is said that in the time of George III. a Lord Spencer met with an accident while out hunting whereby the tails of his coat were torn off, making the abbreviated garment fashionable.

Spencer Waists are without darts and worn belted down. Extremely neat, made out of Figured Nainsooks, Swisses, Dacas, Jaconets and Organdies, in all of which we are showing many pretty patterns. Also, Belts, and Satins for Bodices.

A bountiful selection of Lace Caps and Bonnets. As cute and pretty as the babies that are to wear them.

Noticeable are the new Bonnets with Capes, Irish point edgings, delicate linings and bows, $3 25. Hand-made feather edged Bonnets, $2 75. Pretty caps with ruffled fronts, $1 25.

Imported European novelties, $3 and upwards.

Our advice is this: When you buy EYE-GLASSES or SPECTACLES get the best. It pays. If the difficulty is in the cost, then have we done more than our half in helping meet it by marking "CROWN" Pebble Glasses at $1 75. All the facilities of practical opticians in fitting the eyesight properly.

REGISTRATION
—AND—
Naturalization!

ROOMS OF REPUBLICAN COUNTY COMMITTEE,
SACRAMENTO, July 21, 1884.

The attention of voters is called to the importance of Registration and Naturalization.

No man will be allowed to vote at the election this Fall, unless he has received his naturalization papers at least NINETY DAYS prior to the day of election. The latest date, therefore, in which naturalization papers can be taken out, to entitle the holder to vote, is AUGUST 5, 1884. Republicans throughout the county should give this immediate and constant attention, that there may be no votes lost.

Section 1 of Article II. of the State Constitution, says: "Every native male citizen of the United States; every male person who shall have acquired the rights of citizenship under or by virtue of the treaty of Queretaro, and every male naturalized citizen thereof, who shall have become such ninety days prior to any election, of the age of twenty-one years, and shall have been a resident of the State one year next preceding the election, and of the county in which he claims his vote ninety days, and in the election precinct thirty days, shall be entitled to vote at all elections which are now or may hereafter be authorized by law."

No person will be allowed to vote whose name is not upon the Great Register of the county THIRTY or more days prior to the day of election. Persons removing from other counties into this can procure transfers, and should do so without delay, as the time is short.

30 DAYS' TRIAL.

AS THE SOLE MANUFACTURER of Horne's Electric Belts, I warn the public to beware of the recklessly false statements that "C. N. Wes * * *" discarded the same. He could not possibly do so, since he never manufactured such Belts. Years ago I sold West's Belts, but discarded them on account of their defective electric construction. My NEW IMPROVED ELECTRIC BELTS are superior to any electric or galvanic belts in America in curing diseases without medicine. W. J. SAN FRANCISCO ITEMS.

The Health Office has notified the pilots to enforce the quarantine laws strictly, so far as comes under their supervision.

There were eighty-six deaths in the city during the last seven days, being a decrease of eighteen from the corresponding period of last year.

The report of Fisher Ames, special counsel for collecting delinquent taxes for the years 1872-74, shows that for the year ending June 30, 1884, he has collected $4,058 37.

Frank E. Hutchings, who strangled his mistress, Jeannette Sims, was convicted in San Francisco Saturday of murder in the first degree on one ballot. He will be sentenced to death next Saturday.

The operations of the San Francisco Clearing-house for the past week compare as follows with the corresponding week last year:

	1883.	1884.
Exchanges	$10,001,432	$8,311,788
Balances	2,296,676	1,713,771

For the use of the School Department from September, 1883, to July, 1884, there were purchased 140,000 slate pencils, 216,000 pieces of chalk, 1,101 pieces of soap, 2,000 gross of pens, 144 packages of stove polish, 25 drum heads and 10 pair of drum sticks.

The affairs of the Fourth of July Committee have been wound up, all the bills paid, and a balance remains to the amount of $263 65, which has been deposited in the bank to the credit of the committee of 1885. The expenses of the celebration were $7,032 15.

At the request of the Board of Health, Chief Crowley has instructed Captain Dunleavy to detail two officers to assist Sergeant Bonner and officer Baxter in boarding all incoming vessels, so as to preclude all possibility of any contagious disease being carried into the city.

Charles Crocker offered to give $3,000 to the Veterans' Home, provided other persons gave enough to make a fund of $25,000. Already $15,000 has been raised, and the whole $25,000 is not required. But as there is an immediate call for money, the Directors propose to ask Mr. Crocker to respond to his offer at once.

Immigration to this State remains unabated. During the past week 723 immigrants arrived, of which fully two-thirds came through to this city. In about two weeks a party of settlers will locate on Government land in Colusa county, and next Tuesday about fifteen settlers will go to Butte county, east of Chico.

CHANGED DAILY FOR THE RED HOUSE.

"THE PURCHASER'S JOY!"

In the battle of life 'tis the breadwinner's care
To provide for his family dear;
And surround them with comforts such as he will dare
To take from his income each year.

There is hardly a man in this State, so to speak,
When wishing to purchase give thought
How much they could save from their wages each week,
If they knew where their goods should be bought.

The RED HOUSE is known all over this coast,
As the store for the people at large
For the money you send you get value the most,
And you never will be overcharged.

Your attention is called to the greatest event
That has happened for years in this State,
How a large Dry Goods House—whose credit was bent,
Made an effort to settle—too late.

The stock which they had was exceedingly neat,
Of the freshest and newest design;
In fact, in all lines they were very complete,
And now all that stock it is mine.

This Great Bankrupt Stock of O'Niel & Stuart, San Francisco,

AMOUNTING TO $25,000!

Was purchased by us for 33 1-3 cents on the Dollar!

After a week's continuous hard labor, with a largely increased corps of help, we take pleasure in saying to you that it is all marked and ready for sale THIS MORNING. There is not an article in the DRY GOODS LINE but which you will find represented in this Stock. We make a Specialty of this Great Stock, as we intend it shall all be closed out within thirty days, and purpose giving you an opportunity seldom presented while this Sale lasts to secure UNEQUALED BARGAINS, as we intend disposing of the whole lot at a small advance. If you wish to make one dollar do the work of two, come and see us.

Treat all Chronic and Special Diseases.

YOUNG MEN

WHO MAY BE SUFFERING FROM THE effects of youthful follies or indiscretion, will do well to avail themselves of this, the greatest boon ever laid at the altar of suffering humanity. DR. SPINNEY will guarantee to forfeit $500 for every case of Seminal Weakness or Private Disease of any kind or character which he undertakes and fails to cure.

MIDDLE-AGED MEN.

There are many at the age of 30 to 60 who are troubled with too frequent evacuation of the bladder, often accompanied by a slight smarting or burning sensation, and a weakening of the system in a manner the patient cannot account for. On examining the urinary deposits a ropy sediment will often be found, and sometimes small particles of albumen will appear, or the color will be of a thin milkish hue, again changing to a dark and torpid appearance. There are many men who die of this difficulty, ignorant of the cause, which is the second stage of seminal weakness. Dr. S. will guarantee a perfect cure in all such cases, and a healthy restoration of the genito-urinary organs.

Office hours—10 to 4 and 6 to 8. Sunday, from 10 to 11 A. M. Consultation free. Thorough examination and advice, $5. Call or address
